

From the Kurgo Company you will find a barrier option that prevents dogs from coming into the front seat along with a hammock product that helps to secure your dog and protects your car seats from doggie goo. This company also offers several other types of restraint, including a Zip Line product that allows a dog more freedom. You can check out their merchandise at: www.kurgo.com/