

DOG WORLD®

DOG WORLD

Active Dogs Active People

Rescue Issue

«AKITA
January 2011

10 WAYS
TO HELP
Homeless Dogs

The Secret to Winning in the Show Ring

Improve Your Dog's Door
Manners
in 3 Easy Steps

Natural Steps to a
DAZZLING COAT

BREEDER-FINDER INSIDE

YORKSHIRE TERRIER

Dog distractions

A survey conducted by AAA automobile club and Kurgo pet products revealed that canine passengers often distract their owners. Almost 60 percent of respondents said they engaged in precarious behavior while driving, such as petting the dogs or allowing them to sit in their laps. According to the survey, only 17 percent use any form of pet restraint system, such as a seat belt or crate, when driving with their dogs.